ALTAR

ACOLYTE GUILD

Mission: To serve God in the church by preparing and assisting the clergy in leading the celebration of all services.

The Acolyte Ministry continues to grow by adding three new members this year. In February, nine members represented the church at the Absalom Jones service at The Cathedral of St. John the Divine in Manhattan. In May five members represented the church at the Diocesan Confirmation held at St. Ann and Holy Trinity in Brooklyn Heights. In October fourteen members represented the church at the National Acolyte Festival at the Washington National Cathedral in Washington D.C. We have continued to provide diligent service to the various worship services throughout the year. We have a continuous need for new members to join us in committed service in this part of God's vineyard.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS' / LICENSED EUCCHARISTIC VISITORS' MINISTRY

Mission: To dedicate our lives to serve God, His Church and His people; assist the clergy in the administration of the Blessed Sacrament and take the Holy Eucharist to the sick and shut-in.

At the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, we administer the Chalice. We continue to participate in the celebration of Holy Baptism as well as memorials and funerals at the church. Our ongoing mission to bring Christ's presence to the sick and shut-in members of our parish by taking the Holy Eucharist to them remains unwavering although we experienced a decrease in the number of visits since the last APM. Additionally, we arranged clergy visits for our sick and shut in members (at their request) for special celebrations; we also arranged clergy visits for members of the parish (as requested) for ministrations at the time of death or near death.

We participated in various church events and activities that enrich our parish life and worship, this included the Celebration of a New Ministry as St. Augustine's 7th Rector was installed; visiting and praying with bereaved family members; actively participating in Lenten activities specifically weekly commemoration of the Stations of the Cross and Holy Week services;

This past year, we welcomed one new member each to the Eucharistic Ministers' and the Licensed Eucharistic Visitors' ministry. We are grateful that they have made a commitment to serve.

Fr James led our annual retreat this year and the theme was "Reconciliation: spiritual and physical". As we go forward together into another year, we will keep striving to integrate this year's theme for St Augustine's week into our work: The harvest is plentiful... we are your laborers.

The Ministry of Reading (Lectors)

Mission: To proclaim God's Word and lead the Intercessory prayers during liturgies.

The Lector's ministry continues to participate in St Augustine's worship experience through the reading of the appointed lessons and leading the intercessory prayers. By their humble and focused participation in this ministry, Lectors have continued to create a positive impact within our church services.

No new members were added this year; however, plans are underway for near future recruitment and training of prospective members.

As another Advent season begins, we will joyfully re-commit to one of the Marks of Mission of the Episcopal church which is: "to proclaim the Good News" (God's Word) with the promise of sharing hope for a resurrected life to everyone who hears the Word.

MUSIC MINISTRY REPORT 2017

Mission: To spread the word of God and to spiritually minister to the members of the church, and the community through songs of praise and worship.

The Music Ministry of St. Augustine's Episcopal Church is a dynamic group of members who seek to spread God's word through expressions of music, dance and art. Currently, the ministry is a coalition of the Chancel Choir, the Gospel Choir, The Youth Choir (Voices of Hope) and the Pan-A-Praise Steel Orchestra. The ministry also works in close collaboration with the Dance Ministry (Vessels of Praise).

During the past church year (2017: Advent 1 to Christ the King) the members have shared their talents and love of music with the congregation and wider community. The choirs continue to lead the Sunday mass (8am and 11am) in song every Sunday from September through June. The youth choir typically performs every first Sunday (Youth Sunday) at 11am service. The Pan-A-Praise would minister to the congregation every 4th Sunday.

During the year 2017, the music ministry presented the Christmas Concert (Glory of Christmas 2), the Lenten concert series (which featured presentations from Beverley Burton (Gospel singer and song writer), Anthony Alleyne (Gospel Singer), Bevon Semple (Gospel Singer) and D'Naysa Jordan (who ministered to our congregation on Palm Sunday Sunday), the Palm Sunday concert and also debuted a Pentecost Concert.

In addition, the choirs have been present at services during Holy Week and St. Augustine's Week. The steel band also hosted a concert during St. Augustine's week that featured steel bands from St. Luke's Episcopal and St. Mark's Episcopal. All of these bands have been seeded by members of the St. Augustine's Pan-A-Praise.

In the wider community, the choirs and steel band ministered at Holy Family Roman Catholic Church (Nick Perry Inauguration Ceremony), Church of the Nativity (Gospel Evensong), St. George's Episcopal (Founder's Week), St. Paul's UMC (Revival 2017, Ecumenical Service 2017) and Marcus Garvey Nursing Home. The Music Ministry extends its sincerest gratitude to the members and congregation of the St. Augustine's Episcopal Church for their continued support. We thank you for the many opportunities to minister to you and we look forward to your continued support in 2018 as we work together in this part of God's vineyard.

We have continued to provide breakfast with the help of health members, and the members of the congregation after the 8 o'clock service on Sunday mornings (referred to as "free will breakfast") and after the 10 o'clock service on Wednesday mornings.

Weekly visits continue to be made to members who are hospitalized, and the sick and shut-in members who can no longer come to church. Provision of food, pampers and supplements are given to them when they are visited. Seniors who come out on Wednesdays are also given the same supplies.

INTERNATIONAL BAZAAR COMMITTEE

Mission: To encourage the sharing of our cultural diversity in a street bazaar, through music, foods, games and social activities.

This year's Annual International Bazaar culminated on Saturday July 8th followed by International Sunday on July 9th 2017. Once again, the bazaar experienced a very successful year, as contributing countries and ministries (Antigua and Barbuda, Barbados, Grenada, Carriacou and Petit Martinique, Guyana, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago, Panama and St. Kitts, USA and Cultural Heritage Ministry, and Health and Community Services) performed exceptionally well throughout the year.

Some of the activities included Curry Q's, Cake and Bake Sales, Bus Outings, Tea Parties, Breakfasts, Fish Fries and a Pre- Independence Day Boat Ride.

This year, St. Vincent and the Grenadines was the featured country. Their day began with a spectacular display of cultural talent and ethnic foods in their booth. Local Vincentian singers were among the performers and their entertainment was outstanding.

Staff members from the SUNY Downstate Medical Center were on hand to provide many health support services.

So too were members of the New York City Fire Department who appeared with the smoke truck to provide safety tips on fire and smoke emergencies.

There were other interactive entertainment and games, inclusive of dance competitions, musical chairs and scavenger hunts to name a few.

As usual, the supporters, spectators and other guests enjoyed themselves immensely. This year we had a great increase in children attendance and participation and they too had an exceptionally great time.

Net Proceeds from this year's bazaar was $33,663.00.

GIVING HEARTS

The Giving Hearts Ministry is no longer a fund-raising ministry at St. Augustine's Episcopal Church.

In June 2017, a meeting was held with Fr. Womack and it was decided because of lack of membership the present members should join other ministries.

This year, in order to raise funds, dinners were sold and a day trip was held in August. Proceeds from these along with other donations were deposited with the church.

We the members would like to express our sincere thanks to our St. Augustine's family and outside patrons for their support over the years.

Thanks again, and God Bless.

WARDENS' REPORTS

MANAGEMENT & FINANCE REPORT

"Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For the standard of measure, you use, it will be measured to you in return." Luke 6:38.

This bible verse is on each of our offering envelopes. Does this mean that we will receive Gods graces if we give generously? We don't know when that is, but at St. Augustine's we give our offering in anticipation of God's glory.

Our year began with a new rector the Rev'd Lawrence M. Womack and we have been blessed. The Management and Finance team of the vestry oversees the finances of our church. It is our charge to see that our finances are conducted in a professional manner and protects the financial foundation of this church.

Our responsibilities include the weekly offering processing and all other special deposits and ensuring that the monies are deposited in a timely manner. We were accountable for ensuring that our bills were paid, and the payroll processed for our staff.

Looking Back

We attended the City of New York's seminar on Community Emergency Planning at Brooklyn Borough Hall where we learned how to prepare & respond to emergencies in houses of worship and how we can, as a faith community, create our own emergency plan.

With Thanks

This year, we said goodbye to Myrtle Bayne-Vaughan who has faithfully served as our Parish Administrator for 10 years. Myrtle leaves to serve in her other vocations and as a proud retiree and grandmother. Thank you, Myrtle, for your faithful service to St. Augustine's. You will be missed!

Thank you to Joan Mitchell who has served as interim Administrator since July and for her dedication in keeping up the various and sundry tasks connected with the running of the church office. Thank you to our guardian angels Shirley Bonadie and Lorna Potter for volunteering in the office and who are never too busy to greet visitors with a smile and are an excellent first impression for all entering the building.

We are thankful to The Right Reverend Lawrence C. Provenzano Bishop of Long Island for returning our beloved Fr. Joseph Diele to us. It is indeed a blessing to have you here at St. Augustine's again. Thank you also to The Rev. Marie Tatro, Vicar for Community Justice Ministry for the time that you spent here and for sharing your talents with us and for your dedication to this ministry. Thanks to Mr. Kurleigh Lowe who weekly shares his gifts and talents in music, and goes above and beyond in leading our choirs, choosing hymns, and making arrangements for special music. As a congregation we are blessed to have you here.

Thank you to Nicole Gardner, Miriam Coombs, Lorna Potter and Claudette Brown for their sincere devotion to the children in their care in the afterschool program and in the Summer camp. Thank you to Cecelia Curtis for continued dedication and concern for our Seniors. Thank you to Noel Roberts for sharing your gifts and talents with us.

Many thanks to Corey Montague and Lamont Noble (Ramon) who go above and beyond their assigned duties and who keep our buildings clean and safe. Thank you to Joseph Hendricks, Keith Eastmond and Kirt Mitchell for their attentiveness in overseeing the care of the property. Thanks to all of them, our buildings and other physical assets are adequately safeguarded and maintained.

Property Report

In 2017 we repaired and capped the parapet wall on the roof, at a cost of $11,000.00. We installed a new Master lock one (1) key system for the entire facility. The cost was $2000.00 The hot water heater in the Noel Hall sub-basement cracked and flooded the basement earlier in the year. A new heater was installed the next day. It should be noted that these projects were fixed without asking the congregation to contribute additional funds to cover the cost.

Finance

We have developed stronger control on the monies you have entrusted to us through the offering. Many thanks to the counting team for their conscientiousness in tallying the monies received and for their dedication to our church.

- Our Congregational Support for Diocesan Ministry is up to date and as of October we paid $37,500.00.
- Earlier in the year we asked for your help with our payments to our commitment for Diocesan Pledge and you have given to date $15,453.00 and this has helped the church a great deal.
- This year's Lenten offerings increased to $3876.00. Thanks to all who contributed.

- The fall Energy Rally drive collected $1668.00

Thanks to our Treasurer James Sisnett and Asst. Treasurers Errol Pryce and Vernon Kirton for their commitment to our financial health

2017 Audit Report

In June the church was audited by Allan G Pope CPA LLC for the year ending December 31, 2016. The examination was made in accordance with the Audit Program as authorized by the Diocese of Long Island and accordingly includes the audit procedures as prescribed in the program.

2017 Diocesan Convention

We participated in the 2017 Diocesan Convention at which time the following person from St. Augustine's was elected to Diocesan offices:

- The Rev. Lawrence M. Womack was elected unanimously to the Standing Committee. The Standing committee's duties include acting as the council of advice to the Bishop.
- Your United Thank Offering this year amounted to $3327.00 and was presented at convention by Birdie Blake-Reid.
- Two of our youth represented St. Augustine's at this year's convention and took part in the various weekend activities that the diocese had planned for them. They were Deshonte Crafton-Cobham and Shaunya Gibson. Both of these young ladies took part in the Convention Eucharist on Saturday morning November 11, 2017 reading the Prayers of the People. Thank you to both of them, and to Rena Gibson who represented St. Augustine's as one of the Diocesan chaperones.

Fundraising

Our church's fundraising endeavors this year were notable;

- The Bazaar this year netted a profit of $33,663. A special thank you to Ormond Brathwaite coordinator of the Bazaar and to all the nations who participated.
- The Annual Spring Luncheon at Russo's on the Bay was a great success. It was chaired by Hyacinth Goring and Ormond Brathwaite. The net profit from that event was $28,000. Congratulations to the luncheon team for a job well done.
- The Communications Group Musicality concert raised $2,348.00.

- Thirty-two persons went on the church cruise this year and from all reports they had an enjoyable and enlightening trip. Special thanks to Rita Fray, Lana Riviera and Ormond Brathwaite. The net profit from that was $25,000.00.
- The family picnic was organized again this year by Yvette Wood. The church went to Clementon Park Splash World, Clementon NJ. Even though this is not considered a fundraiser for the church, a profit of $1,637.00 was realized which is an increase from last year. Thank you to Ms. Wood for bringing us all together for a fun filled day.
- A concerted effort by the organizations raised the sum of $15,000. Thank you for your continued support. Thank you to Madeline Forde, Chairperson of the Parish Council and to the members of the council for coordinating and maintaining our church's calendar and for keeping the church in a forward direction.
- St. Augustine's Week theme for this year was taken from Matthew 9:37-38 "The harvest is plentiful: We are your laborers" The chairperson was Coleen Bascom. This year we extended St. Augustine's Week offering to Harvest Sunday and to date you contributed $17,271.00.

Thank you to the team for 2017.

SPIRITUALITY & FORMATION

For in Him we live and move and have our being.”(Acts17:28)

Brothers and sisters in Christ we continue to be equipped, inspired and challenged at every opportunity to live out our mission: “To restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ.” Doing this has not been always easy. But, through the God that we serve, we’ve made it this far.

In January, The Rt. Rev. Daniel Allotey, who was the Bishop-in-Residence, left us for St Gabriel’s, after providing months of pastoral care until the arrival of our new Rector. We thank Bishop Allotey for his ministry and the time that was well spent here at St. Augustine’s.

Women’s day was celebrated on March 12, and this was again hosted by our Mother’s Union and the Episcopal Church Women Ministry. To our Women’s ministries we say thanks for your work.

For Lent this year, we participated in the St. Luke’s Deanery Lenten midweek services. The theme this year was from Matthew 6:33 “Seek ye first the kingdom of God.” Here at St Augustine’s, we hosted the deanery service on March 29.

Thanks to our Altar Guild Ministry for hosting another liturgical workshop on April 1. The workshop was very informative and was well attended.

We welcomed The Rev. Mthr. Marie Tatro, who was with us part time, from April through September of this year. Mthr. Tatro was able to provide much needed help at our Sunday services. We do appreciate the time that Mthr. Tatro was here and with that we say thanks.

The Rev’d. Lawrence M. Womack, was installed as our Seventh Rector by our Diocesan Bishop, The Rt. Rev. Lawrence C. Provenzano, on Saturday, June 17. A number of rector’s family members, friends, clergy, civic leaders and members of congregation were present for a rich and spirit filled service. We are indeed grateful for Fr. Womack for answering the call to be our rector.

We welcomed, on September 10, The Rt. Rev. Geralyn Wolf, Asst. Bishop of this Diocese, for the Bishop’s pastoral visitation. It was Bishop Wolf’s first visit here at

to be back with us for another visit.

Also on September 10, we welcome The Rev'd. Fr. Joseph Diele, who only the day before was received into the Episcopal Church as a priest. Fr. Diele is now our Assistant Rector and again, we welcome Fr. Diele and his family.

Once again, this year, we had our St Augustine's Week Revival at which we celebrated our 142nd year of existence. This was celebrated from September 10 to September 17. The theme was taken from Matthew 9:37-38 "The Harvest Is Plentiful We Are Your Laborers." During the week of revival, we were blessed to have with us: The Rev'd. Dr. Pierre Andre Duvert, The Rev'd. Cn. Terrence Lee, The Rev'd. Mthr. Marie Tatro, and The Rev'd. Dn. Majorie Bowden Edmonds, who came and brought powerful messages. We closed out our revival week with Homecoming Sunday on September 17. Our thanks goes out to Ms. Coleen Bascom and the entire team for coordinating this year's revival.

Also, in October, we recognized Police, Firefighters and First Responders. We were honored and pleased to have all of the officers who came to our worship service. As in the past, those present were treated and entertained outside in front of church after the service. We express our thanks to Ms. Patricia Reddock and her team for the work that was done.

Our mid week Wednesday service at 10:00 AM continues to be well attended and this is followed by an active Senior Program. It is our hope that in the near future our Senior Program will be expanded to more than one day per week. A big thank you goes out to Mrs. Cecelia Curtis and her team for the work that they continue to do.

Our 15 candidates were prepared for the Diocesan Confirmation service for this year. Again, we say thanks to Ms. Kennisha Douglas and all those who mentored our candidates as they were prepared for confirmation.

Our Sunday School continues to meet on Sundays. Our thanks go out to Mrs. Lynda Canaii and all the teachers for their work and dedication with our kids' Spiritual Formation development.

We continue to be blessed and be ministered to by our dance ministry the "Vessels of Praise." Ms. Kisha Mullin and the choreographers continue to lead and prepare our dancers to praise God through their dance.

Our music ministry under the leadership of our Minister of Music, Mr. Kurleigh Lowe, continues to lead us with their singing at our worship services. This ministry has blessed us with their concerts that were held and we do look forward to their upcoming Christmas concert. To the Chancel Choir, The Gospel Choir, The Men's Chorus and the Voices of Hope- our children choir, we appreciate you and we thank you.

We had 146 celebrations of Holy Eucharist with an attendance of approximately 39,000 in total worshipping. In addition, there were 19 funeral services and 2 wedding ceremonies held. Additionally, this year, 17 children were baptized and 26 people became new members to our congregation.

The Lay Eucharist Visitors continue to assist the clergy in visiting our sick and shut- ins. A total of 299 visitations were made. Thanks to Ms. Joy Fletcher for coordinating our Lay Eucharistic Ministry.

We loss a number of our loved ones, friends, brothers and sisters since we gathered at our last Annual General Meeting. For those who were members of our congregation we lift them up:

1. Hollis Chesterfield Duke
2. Marilyn Eileen Plowden
3. Lucille Elaine French
4. Gwenith L. Allicock
5. Ruthlyn Modeste
6. Victoria Inez Knight
7. Joseph Matthias Blaize
8. Cynthia Cecelia Jordan
9. Glenith Anita Greenidge

May their souls and souls of the Faithful Departed, Rest in Peace.

RECTOR'S REPORT

RECTOR'S REPORT

“The harvest is plentiful... We are your laborers!”

This theme, announced during for this year, during St. Augustine's Week is taken from Matthew 9:37-38, where Jesus said: “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send our laborers into his harvest.” Matthew 9: 37-38:

We have enjoyed another plentiful harvest since our last Annual Parish Meeting. You have read about what we have done: the monies raised, the services held, the events sponsored, the fellowship enjoyed and the tears shed for our departed members.

I have been consistently amazed at generosity and dedication of the congregation – not just those who are able to make it to the services on Wednesdays and/or Sundays, but also by those who can no longer make it out. Our sick and shut-in are a strong asset, even now, to our congregation and provide the foundation upon which we all stand. As such, I would like to remember those who are on our current prayer list:

Thanks to our dedicated Lay Eucharistic Visitors and the addition of Fr. Diele, we are improving in our goal to make sure that we are able to visit each member that requests a visit, in a timely fashion. It has vestry members paired with the various ministries to increase and improve the lines of communication between the ministries and the vestry. We have contracted with Kelvin Browne to build and maintain a new website – www.staecbk.com - complete with podcast capabilities and increased attractiveness and functionality. Enhancing our new website will be the option for digital/online giving. Our vestry has contracted with the eChurch/Pushpay company to provide these services, as well as develop a mobile app for ease of giving and interaction with St. Augustine's. We will have a full roll-out/training for the new technology, very soon.

We are also counting on each of you, as members and ministers to pay close attention to what you ask of the church. Principally, we need to do a better job of planning our Ministry Activities. It is no longer going to be sustainable expecting the church, alone, to support the pre-event costs. The Finance Team, along with the Parish Council and Vestry are looking at the effect that requiring ministries to have at least 50% of the cost of their event by the time deposits need to be made, e.g. tickets need to be purchased and buses need to be reserved. While this might sound like an onerous task and will need to be adjusted based upon the event, ministries need to be aware of the how the church works. In the same way as you do not receive all of your salary at one time, the church does not receive all of its income at the same time. If several ministries are asking for deposit monies at the same time, that causes a problem in the church budget, just as it would in your home budget.

In light of that, the leadership of the parish is looking for ways to reduce the amount of fundraising that the ministries need to do. According to our financial report, a full 14% of our 2016 budget came from organizational (ministry) events. This level is probably not sustainable, so we will be looking at new and different ideas for functions and events that will help us to tap into the larger community. We have done a good job of inviting and including our family and friends, but I am talking about creating events that are so compelling that people on the outside – folks who we don't even know – will be interested in attending. These could be conferences, evangelistic services, leadership training events. We have the expertise and the energy and the most important resource – the people – to do amazing things in Brooklyn. The secret of strong, sustainable and sustaining churches is trusting that the expertise, the talents and the gifts that we need are already among us. Jesus, said (Luke 21:17b): “For, in fact, the kingdom of God is among/within you.” If that is really the case (or if we really believe it), we will trust that God has already brought the ones that we need here, we just have to encourage them to come forward and to share who they are and what they know.

Along with the new, digital options for our future, we are under-girding the traditional, time- honored and effective practices of Christian formation for adults, children and youth. Classes have been (re)established, including Wednesday night Bible Study and Thursday morning and evening spirituality classes. Beginning yesterday, Fr. Diele will be hosting monthly quiet/retreat days to help members of our parish to deepen our connection to God and our individual and collective ministry. We are making strides to reinvigorate our Christian Formation for children, moving to raise the visibility of our children and teachers by them taking Communion together, each Sunday there is Sunday School. We are moving toward re-establishing our Youth Fellowship and working through the Education Ministry to support our current and future students through workshops, educational events.

As well, our Diocese's move toward racial justice and reconciliation is moving forward through the work of our Parish Council and the leadership of Dr. Castro. As many already know, four of our young people traveled to North Carolina to join with youth and young adults from several dioceses in the US and from South Africa and Botswana. There, they had the opportunity to work with, worship with and learn from others about ways to work for racial justice. Relationships were formed and will bear fruit as they plan and implement a similar conference for young people here, in Brooklyn.

I'd like to take this time to thank this out-going vestry, for their leadership and prayerful discernment. I am very thankful for our staff, especially Ms. Joan Mitchell who, after the retirement of our illustrious Parish Administrator, Myrtle Bayne Vaughan, has done a wonderful job, along with our two dedicated office volunteers – Ms. Bonadie and Ms. Potter. Special thanks also goes to our Communications Consultant, Mr. Roberts who has taken on the production of our service bulletins, fliers, video board announcements and other communications materials and publications. A huge “thank you” is due to our Stewardship Committee (led by Ms. Bonadie) for taking on the task of organizing this year’s stewardship information. We should give glory and thanks to God for our sexton Mr. Montague and our part-time custodian, Mr. Noble.

What is abundantly clear is that we desperately need each other to do the work that we are given to do and to be the laborers that are being sent out into God’s harvest. No matter how hard each of us works, our hard work would not realize anything close to what it can be, without an effort that requires us all. The monies that are given and counted, with the food that is cooked, with the songs that are sung and the music that is played, to the candles that are lit and the altar that is prepared, to the floors that are vacuumed and swept, including the prayers that are prayed and the meals that are shared, coupled with classed taught and the insights gained – all require each of us, even if our participation is only being present.

In order to be the laborers that God is sending out, we have to be ready to see one another as vital to the harvest plan. Our common heritage as Anglicans/Episcopalians ties us with a deeper bond that can help us overcome whatever difficulties we might face. We need each other, just as much as we need God. At the end of a revival service at St. Paul United Methodist Church, just down the block, Pastor Jackson mentioned that their community had recently decided to begin singing Hezekiah Walker’s song: “I need you, you need me; we’re all a part of God’s body. Stand with me, agree with me, we are a part of God’s body. It is His will, that every need be supplied. You are important to me, I need you to survive.” Our churches often get to the point where we think that we are ministers unto ourselves and our own opinions, experiences, wants, needs supersede our call to be sisters and brothers and members of the body of Christ. We need to be reminded of how much we need each other. Oftentimes, that is most understood in the stories of those who can no longer be here with regularity, or at all. If you have not had the opportunity to visit with a shut-in that you do not know, talk with one of our Lay Eucharistic Visitors or others who visit our home-bound members, you will hear and see how important the connection to one another, that this parish provides.

The work that our relationships require is holy work that is just as important as serving each other and engaging in the ministries to which we are called. Caring for “the least of these” can also include the relationships that seem less important or less than the work that looms so large in our ministerial minds eyes. The work that we must continue to do is constantly preparing us to go out and harvest the goodness that is abundant in and through the people that God has called us to be with – both here and elsewhere, so that our hearts can be open enough to be filled, again, with a great and abiding love for one another.

“The harvest is plentiful... We are your laborers!”
